

Recommendations of the International Conference on
" Role of Standards in Response to global Challenges:
Climate Change, Water, Nutrition and Energy

1- Condensing the national, regional and international Standards committees to concentrate on treating the results of climate change.

2- Expanding the issuance of standards treating the problems resulting from climate change

3- Holding conferences and seminars on the Regional and International level with the participation of the Relevant International bodies continuously.

4- Raising the media awareness of the Climate changes on the national and regional levels as well as involving individuals in solving the relevant problems.

5- Condensing the media campaigns nationally , regionally and internationally to reduce the consumption of water, Food and Energy

6- Expanding researches for alternative solutions in the fields of Water, Food and Energy

7- Urging the developed industrial countries for establishing Trust Fund with enormous funds for treating the climate change effects in developing countries without depending on temporary donations at the time of crises

8- International Campaign led by developing countries to prevent using the human food in producing Biofuel through international Decrees

9- Calling for more executive procedures on the international level for the prevention of environmental pollution & global warming usages according to Kyoto agreement

10- Allocating international incentives for the countries committed to the treatment of global warming and the climate change causes

11- Activating the role of local societies and non-governmental organizations all over the world for environment protection

12- Activating and establishing crises centres on the international level for prompt treatment and early alarm for the international crises

13- Founding mechanism for horizontal and vertical spreading all over the world for main corps i.e.: wheat, Corn and oils ...etc